

Ji Yun Martel

2805 NE 125th St APT 406 | Seattle WA 98125 | jiyunkm@uw.edu | 206-963-7304

SUMMARY OF QUALIFICATIONS

- Skills: Java, CSS, HTML, JavaScript, SQL, Microsoft Word, Microsoft Excel, GitHub,
- Excellent: interpersonal skills, aspiration to learn, multitasking, initiative and problem solving skills, organization skills.

EDUCATION

University of Washington, Seattle WA

September 2013 – Present

- Degree: Bachelor of Science in Informatics
- GPA: 3.43/4.0
- Related Coursework: Java Programming, Client-Side Web Development, Relational Database Management Systems, and Design Thinking.

WORK EXPERIENCE

Server, BBQ Chicken

November 2014 – Present

- Monitor dining hall to ensure excellent management and excellent experience of customers.
- Work with other servers to improve teamwork and problem solving.
- Showed excellence in communication skills through talking with the customers.

PROJECTS

‘Pencil’ Website

October 2016

Web Development/Design: Client-Side Web Development

- Created a website looking at a picture of what the website should look like.
- Used CSS and HTML to achieve certain styling and effect on the website.
- Found every detail in the website that needed to be inserted and created the exact styles through the knowledge of CSS and HTML.

‘Unemployment’ Website

March 2016 – June 2016

Design and research/ Awareness of social problems: Intellectual Foundations of Informatics

- Prototyped using balsamiq, making sure to point out the important details in creating the website.
- Researched and gathered information about homelessness and unemployment to raise awareness and help them find solutions to their problems.
- Used Wix to design the UI/UX and to create the website so it is appealing to the eyes but also useful for the users.

ACTIVITIES

Finance Director, Co-founder of NEXUS, UW Seattle

May 2016 – Present

A student-run organization where students work together for entrepreneurship projects

- Led sponsorship team to improve member benefits and financial condition and Developed financial plan for the organization, to ensure budget stability.
- Maintained financial relationships with other members within the organization.
- Successfully lead two events with around 30 attendees, which lead us to sign a contract with N15, a startup in Korea.

Membership Coordinator & Event Coordinator, KSA UW Seattle

October 2013 – June 2016

Organization with over 1000 members with the goal of helping Korean students obtain International understandings

- Initiated and planned 3 events per quarter to connect Korean students at UW with similar interests ranging from 50 - 150 students who attend, to help them feel connected in the community.
- Collaborated with other organizations to plan bigger events (~300 attendees), to help Korean community connect with other ethnic groups and demonstrated collaboration skills.
- Lead the events demonstrating leadership, making sure the events ran smoothly and to make backup plans if necessary.